She thanked the Working Group for their feedback.

- 4.7 Mrs Hammond thanked members for their attempts in trying to agree a date for the 'World Religions and World Views' roadshow originally planned to be held in June or July. She explained that SACRE members would have their own stand and exhibit material for their representative group in addition to promoting West Sussex SACRE.
- 4.8 Members were in agreement that the roadshow should be held as two twilight sessions across consecutive weeks on a Tuesday and Thursday from 4.30pm-7.00pm and that teachers, school governors, community leaders and West Sussex County Councillors should be invited. It was suggested that thought is given to holding the sessions across a cluster of rooms in the chosen venue.

6. Update from Assistant Director of Education and Skills

- 6.2 Mr Wagstaff reported that there is a national challenge in relation to the recruitment and retention of specialist RE teachers. He added that work is underway to try and understand the recruitment and retention challenges in primary and secondary schools in West Sussex.
- 6.3 Mr Wagstaff informed members that many schools nationwide are set to transition into academies between now and 2030 and therefore control their own RE provision.
- 6.4 Mr Wagstaff suggested exploring changing demand among other Local Education Authorities' Agreed Syllabuses. He explained that the County Council is in direct competition with Diocesan syllabuses.
- 6.5 In answer to a member's question, Mr Wagstaff confirmed that academies can make their own choices about their Agreed Syllabus but must still follow the national RE programme set by the DfE. He added that around 30-35% of West Sussex schools are presently academies, and that this is expected to increase.
- 6.6 Mr Wagstaff informed members that he has a meeting with the Chief Executives of local multi-academy trusts during October half-term and will update SACRE through Mrs Hammond.
Action: Mrs Hammond to email an update to members when available.
- 6.7 Mrs Beer, co-opted member, offered to share research on multi-academy trusts carried out in her role as Senior Lecturer in Education (Primary Religious Education and Primary English) at the University of Chichester with Mr Wagstaff and Mrs Hammond.
Action: Clerk to obtain research from Mrs Beer and share with officers.
- 6.8 A member highlighted that Chichester Diocese covers East and West Sussex and recommended Hampshire and Norfolk County Councils' Agreed Syllabuses as good examples of multi-disciplinary approaches to teaching.
- 6.9 Resolved – SACRE noted the verbal update.

7. A Reflection on the Annual NASACRE Conference

- 7.1 Mrs Hammond reported that she represented West Sussex SACRE at NASACRE's annual conference and AGM: 'Celebrating 30 years: SACREs for the Future' on 22 May and that SACRE member Rev Pitkeathly (Committee A – Free Churches) was also in attendance.
- 7.2 Mrs Hammond summarised the topics discussed by the keynote speakers and highlighted the main takeaways relevant to SACRE:
- The event provided useful networking opportunities;
 - It was helpful to receive an update on the national agenda;
 - The national picture for SACRE and RE has not changed and is unlikely to do so in the short-term;
 - It is clear WSCC is not the best nor the worst performing Local Education Authority and has room for improvement. SACRE must focus on the development plan in place and strengthen collaborative working between its members.
- 7.3 Mrs Hammond reported that she learned about an independent review into how government engages with faith, 'Does Government do God?', published by Colin Bloom – Independent Faith Engagement Advisor.
Action: Clerk to circulate a link to the review to members and discuss under an agenda item at the next SACRE meeting.
- 7.4 A member said they believe there is not enough emphasis on the promotion of faiths and that children need to be educated about RE in order to make their own informed choices.
- 7.5 A member asked for consideration to be given to changing SACRE's meeting start time of 10.30am to a twilight session because the current timing takes up some members' classroom teaching hours.
Action: Clerk to look into meeting arrangement options.
- 7.6 In response to a member's concern for RE recruitment, retention and non-specialist cover teaching, Mr Wagstaff said that this is a long-standing issue in primary schools especially and their teachers are expected to teach all subjects.
- 7.7 Mr Wagstaff suggested that SACRE members' external expertise could lend support to schools and the autumn roadshows could provide an opportunity to develop links with schools.
- 7.8 Resolved – SACRE noted the verbal report.

8. Any Other Business

- 8.1 Mrs Bell (Committee A – Jewish) invited members to attend the guided Jewish Living Exhibition based at the Brighton Jewish Community for three weeks from 20 September, as organised by the Board of Deputies of British Jews. Mrs Bell also mentioned that a teacher training session on Judaism will be held at the same venue from 4.30pm-6.00pm on 19 September.

Action: Clerk to circulate the event details and flyer to members following the meeting and arrange for promotional communications to be sent to school head teachers.

8.2 Mr Soni (Committee A – Hindu) raised Navaratri as another autumn event of interest and members welcomed further information on the Hindu festival.

Action: Clerk to follow-up with Mr Soni after the meeting and request event details for circulation to members.
