

ICS Development
Briefing for
West Sussex Health and Wellbeing Board

The journey so far...

Integrated Care Systems (ICSs)

- ICSs are partnerships that bring together providers and commissioners of NHS services across a geographical area with local authorities and other local partners, to collectively plan and integrate care to meet the needs of their population.
- The central aim of ICSs is to integrate care across different organisations and settings, joining up hospital and community-based services, physical and mental health, and health and social care.
- ICSs depend on collaboration and a focus on places and local populations as the driving forces for improvement.
- Despite being effectively mandated in the NHS Long Term Plan, ICSs and STPs are currently voluntary partnerships as they have no basis in legislation and no formal powers or accountabilities.

NHS planning guidance has highlighted two key functions for integrated care systems:

- co-ordination of system transformation – this means partners in the ICS working together to agree changes to local health and care services and develop supporting strategies, for example, around the development of digital infrastructure, estates and workforce
- collective management of system performance – this means partners in the ICS working together to collectively manage and improve the overall financial and operational performance of all the NHS organisations within the system.

Sussex Health and Care Partnership

- In May 2020, Sussex was granted 'Maturing ICS' Status and was given the name Sussex Health and Care Partnership. This is half-way between 'developing' and 'thriving'. Sussex aims to be a "Thriving ICS" by 2022
- The Sussex Health and Care Partnership serves a population of 1.7m people and is responsible for £4bn of health and care spending, delivered by over 30,000 staff
- A Sussex-wide executive provides leadership to the ICS, supported by collaboratives for Acute Care, Mental Health and Primary and Community Care
- Three 'places' form the ICS, and each 'place' is co-terminus with upper-tier local government and is overseen by a place-based Health and Care Partnership Executive
- 38 Primary Care Networks are aligned to the ICS

Our Ambition

"We will be a responsive and innovative system working within our resources and in ways that ensure better health and care for the population around the outcomes that matter to them"

Our guiding principles that shape everything we do as we develop

- We are here for our communities, our patients and population, staff and other stakeholders and we will be ambitious for all.
- We will work together to benefit our population and partners, while also supporting the accountabilities of individual organisations.
- We will collectively manage our system and hold ourselves to account to ensure we deliver safe and sustainable health and care that leads to better outcomes for the population.
- We will provide and champion compassionate, collaborative and inclusive multi-professional leadership, ensuring the most appropriate people are involved at the right time.
- We will use our collective resources efficiently and responsibly.
- We will avoid duplication.
- We will work together to understand challenges and use best practice and evidence as the basis for taking action.
- We will make decisions where they will deliver the greatest positive impact to achieve our ambition.
